Welcome

Gathering Hymn MV 58 We Sing of Your Glory

Inviting the Light

We light this candle to celebrate peace, the cost of which was borne by lives lost, bodies broken, those who volunteered to fight, those forced to fight, those who protested, those who tried to make peace, those who prayed, for the innocent men, women, children and animals who were lost in the slaughter. May the flame of Christ's eternal light shine on them this day and always. Amen

Call to Worship

Remembering generations who have gone before us, the many who gave their lives that we might be free, remembering all who have suffered loss and grief in the name of war, we have come this day to worship the Prince of Peace. **Bathe me in your grace, O One of Spirit's longing; teach me of your gentle ways that fill the soul with strength. Guide me on the pilgrimage that leads to truth and wholeness, fill me with your promise of a love that knows no length.* (MV 82 vs 3)

Opening Prayer

On this day of Remembrance, O God, we give thanks: For peacekeepers and pacifists; for those who served on the front lines, and those who protest and march; for those who volunteered and those who waited anxiously at home; for those who hoped that things would get better, and those who could not stand by and wait. We give thanks for those who believed that the world could be a better place. We remember those who paid the ultimate sacrifice, trusting that others could* and would carry the torch. We give thanks for those who were once enemies who have become friends and allies.

Amen

November 11 – Remembrance Day

At the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month in 1918, the armistice – laying down of arms – was signed to end the first World War. Many nations continue to call this Armistice Day, while others name it Remembrance Day or Veterans' Day, recalling the sacrifice made by women and men in both World War I – “the war to end all wars” – and the many wars that have taken place since.
